Humanely Raised on Family Farms: Our Philosophy

At Wegmans, we believe raising animals in a humane way is the only way it should be done. We have high standards in place that were developed in partnership with animal welfare experts. We take a thorough, personal approach to selecting our supplier partners, visiting each potential facility to evaluate them with our own eyes. Once chosen, welfare audits are conducted periodically to ensure our standards are being met.

*"Near Our Stores" refers to cattle raised by Family Farmers in CT, DE, ME, MD, MA, NH, NJ, NY, NC, OH, PA, RI, VT, VA and WV.

Our partnerships ensure animals are provided wholesome and complete nutrition that promotes health and requires that animals are provided treatment for sickness when necessary. All of our producers are trained in cattle care and handling through Beef Quality Assurance programs, and all of our processing partners comply with the North American Meat Institute's Animal Handling Guidelines and undergo annual independent audits. For more information, visit <https://www.meyernaturalfoods.com/content/documents/meyer-humanely-handled-standards.pdf> and https://certifiedhumane.org/wp-content/uploads/HFAC-Beef-Cattle-Standards_20-2.pdf.

 Our fresh pork, bacon and veal sold in our Massachusetts stores all comply with the Massachusetts Minimum Size Requirements for Farm Animal Containment (Question 3).
